

Join us for the 2010
 South Dakota Right to Life Convention
Educate, Communicate, Celebrate Life
 Mitchell Highland Conference Center
 October 9, 2010 Mitchell, SD

Featuring
 Stephen Wagner, Justice for All
 Olivia Gans, National Right to Life
 Local Voices on Life Issues

A few things to know:

South Dakota Right to Life members and pro-life non-members are welcome to attend this convention. The Mitchell Highland Conference Center is just off of I90 Exit 332, on the SE corner, east of Cabela's. The conference center is connected to the Comfort Inn and Suites and the Hampton Inn via an indoor walkway. Special rates at those hotels are available—mention the SDRTL convention when you call. Things to enjoy in Mitchell: The World's Only Corn Palace, the Prehistoric Indian Museum, the lovely Lakeview Municipal Golf Course, the Dakota Discovery Museum, and so much more. The convention will start at 9:00 and end after the evening meal and keynote speech. During the convention, SDRTL regions will hold meetings. There will be time for input and sharing information. All Right to Life Chapters are encouraged to bring their banners to share. Dress for the day is office casual or dressy. Some like to dress up for the evening banquet. We hope to see you in Mitchell. If you have questions, you may call the SDRTL office at (605) 224-9181.

2010 South Dakota Right to Life Convention registration

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

(so we can send convention information)

Adults $40
 Teens $15
 Children under 13 Free

Registration ends Fri., Sept. 17.
 Walk-ins are welcome, but their meals cannot be guaranteed.

Includes a full day of fabulous pro-life speakers, meals & snacks (g-free and diabetic friendly options), Education, Communication, Celebration, And the SDRTL Convention book—a good source of pro-life business contacts

Mail to SDRTL Convention 2010, PO Box 752, Mitchell, SD 57301
 Make checks payable to Mitchell Area Right to Life
 Mark your calendars for Oct. 9, at the Mitchell Highland Conference Center!

Members of South Dakota Right to Life are active in the pro-life movement within South Dakota. We come from many different social, economic, racial, religious, age and political backgrounds, and we are bound together by a common dedication to protecting all human life. Our cause is to foster and protect society's traditional respect for life by supporting the civil and human rights of the unborn, the defenseless, the aged, the disadvantaged, and all human life.